GOVERNMENT OF BERMUDA

SECTION A : Structure, Organization and Legislation [s.5(1) a]

The Office of Project Management and Procurement was established under Section 32B of the Public Treasury (Administration and Payments) Act 1969.

Legislation:

- Public Treasury (Administration and Payments) Act 1969
- Good Governance Act 2011
- Good Governance Act 2012
- Bribery Act 2016

SECTION B : 1) Functions, powers, duties of the Authority [s. 5(1)b]

Mission Statement:

We provide oversight and guidance in project management and procurement to ensure transparency and value for money.

Vision

We stand on the principles of transparency, integrity, value for money, competition, fairness, and sustainability.

GOVERNMENT OF BERMUDA

Principal Purposes and Functions:

The Office of Project Management and Procurement was established for the following primary purposes—

- to provide professional, qualified procurement expertise and advice to Government;
- to ensure that there is no bias in the awarding of Government contracts;
- to identify and apply performance measures to ensure that Government obtains value for money;
- to ensure that best practices are adhered to in the oversight of capital projects; and
- to advise on, guide and support the development of, and adherence to, procurement regulations, policy, and best practices.

To support the Government in achieving “Value for Money” for all procurements incorporating economy, efficiency, and effectiveness (as defined below) in the use of resources:

(a) “Economy” is acquiring the appropriate quality and quantity of financial, human, and physical resources at the proper times and at the lowest cost.

(b) “Efficiency” is the use of financial, human, and physical resources so that output is maximised for any given set of resource inputs or input is minimised for any given quantity and quality of output provided.

(c) “Effectiveness” is the achievement of the objectives or other intended effects of programs, operations, or activities.

(d) The best value for money is the lowest Total Cost of Ownership. It involves identifying the initial purchase price and estimating all future costs and returns.

The Director of the Office of Project Management and Procurement has the following functions—

- oversight of all Government procurement, including contracts and all pre-contract negotiations, such as requests for proposal, invitations to tender and the obtaining of quotations and estimates;
- oversight of all capital projects for the Government.
- handling of complaints relating to the awarding of Government contracts; and
- such other functions as may be conferred under any other enactment or by the responsible Minister.

Department Objectives:

- Promote the areas covered in our statutory mandate related to good governance and best practices and continue strengthening our office functionality.
- Use a professional approach in our capacity to enable and help our clients achieve projects, procurement, and compliance efficiencies.

GOVERNMENT OF BERMUDA

- Strengthen internal processes for enhanced team performance and development by keeping abreast of emerging trends.
- Help modernise the Project Management and Procurement functions to increase public spending efficiency and build professionalism in project management, procurement, and compliance capacities.

Reporting Framework:

- Annual Report

Decision Making:

The Director of the Office of Project Management and Procurement is authorised under the Public Treasury (Administration and Payments) Act 1969 to take steps considered necessary to ensure that the Code of Practice for Project Management and Procurement is followed by all public officers concerned with obtaining goods and services for the Government. The Code of Practice provides guidance for the Director for decision-making with respect to the following:

- (i) oversight of all Government procurement, including contracts and pre-contract negotiations, such as requests for proposals, invitations to tender and obtaining quotations and estimates;
- (ii) oversight of capital projects for the Government; and
- (iii) Handling complaints that relate to all aspects of the procurement process, including the awarding of government contracts.
