FIFTH SCHEDULE

(Section 5(1))

END-USE RELIEFS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Authorization

1. (1) A person within the description of an eligible beneficiary in the Table of End-Use Reliefs with respect to any specific end-use relief may apply for authorization to import goods or take goods out of a bonded warehouse which qualify for that end-use relief, by completing a customs declaration form and by specifying the customs procedure code relating to the specific end-use to which the goods will be put.

(2) An application for authorization may be made either at the time of importation of the goods or their removal from a bonded warehouse or within twelve months after such importation or removal.

(3) The Collector of Customs may grant such application and issue an authorization or he may refuse it.

(4) The Collector of Customs shall not issue an authorization unless he is satisfied that the applicant—

(a) can and will satisfy the applicable conditions of end-use set out in the Table of End-Use Reliefs;

(b) can and will observe the applicable restrictions of end-use set out in the Table of End-Use Reliefs;

(c) can and will observe the applicable specific controls and diversion provisions set out in the Table of End-Use Reliefs; and

(d) has shown that the importation of the goods does not involve duty avoidance arrangements within the meaning of section 5.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, an end-use does not include a use to which goods are put before they have been duly landed in Bermuda.

Conditions of authorization

2. (1) It shall be a condition of every authorization issued under paragraph 1(3) that—

(a) the goods shall be put to the prescribed end-use relief claimed;

(b) the holder of the authorization, if required to do so by the Collector of Customs, shall provide him with sufficient information to demonstrate that the goods are or, as the case may be, were, put to the prescribed end-use claimed;

(c) the holder shall comply with the conditions and observe the restrictions of the applicable end-use relief set out in the Table of End-Use Reliefs; and

(d) the holder shall comply with the applicable specific controls and diversion provisions set out in the Table of End-Use Reliefs.

(2) The Collector of Customs in issuing an authorization may make it subject to such other conditions as he considers appropriate for protecting the revenue, and may in particular impose conditions requiring the holder to take such measures—

(a) as would enable the Collector of Customs to trace the goods (including conditions as to the marking of goods);

(b) as would enable the Collector of Customs to carry out any checks which he considers necessary to ensure that the goods are actually put to the prescribed end-use claimed.

(3) Every breach of a condition of a prescribed end-use relief shall be deemed to be an unauthorized disposal within the meaning of section 13(4).

CUSTOMS TARIFF ACT 1970

Transfers between authorized holders of goods of same item permitted

3. (1) Notwithstanding section 13 (obligation to pay duty upon diversion), the rate of duty shall not apply to any transfer of goods between eligible beneficiaries of the same end-use relief where such transfer is approved by the Collector of Customs.

(2) The holder of an authorization or an intended transferee may apply to the Collector of Customs for approval of a transfer.

(3) The Collector of Customs may approve such an application or may refuse it.

(4) The transferee shall become the holder of the authorisation and it shall be a condition of every approval of a transfer that the transferee shall be bound by all the conditions of the prescribed end-use relief specified by or under paragraph 2.

(5) The Collector of Customs in granting his approval for a transfer may make it subject to such other conditions as he considers appropriate for protecting the revenue.

SIXTH SCHEDULE

(Section 5(2))

TEMPORARY IMPORTATION RELIEF

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Authorization of temporary importation relief

1. (1) A person within the description of an eligible beneficiary in the Table of Temporary Importation Reliefs with respect to any specific temporary importation relief may apply for authorisation to import goods which qualify for that temporary importation relief, by completing a customs declaration form and by specifying the customs procedure code relating to the specific temporary importation relief.
- (2) The Collector of Customs may grant an application and issue an authorization or he may refuse it, but he shall not issue an authorization unless he is satisfied that the goods—
 - (a) are intended for re-exportation within a given time;
 - (b) would not have undergone any change (except for normal depreciation and use) while in Bermuda; and
 - (c) would be identifiable and traceable after their importation to ensure their exportation.
- (3) It shall be a condition of every authorisation that the holder shall comply with the conditions of temporary importation and observe the restrictions and specific controls and diversion provisions applicable to the goods set out in the Table of Temporary Importation Reliefs.
- (4) The Collector of Customs in issuing an authorisation may make it subject to such other conditions as he considers appropriate for protecting the revenue, and may in particular impose conditions requiring the holder to take such measures—
 - (a) as would enable the Collector of Customs to trace the goods (including conditions as to the marking of goods);
 - (b) as would enable the Collector of Customs to carry out any checks which he considers necessary to ensure that the goods are not used or disposed of in a manner not authorised by the conditions of their temporary importation.

Standing authorization

2. The Collector of Customs may issue standing authorizations that permit temporary importation without the need to apply for and receive authorization for every importation, and may impose such conditions on the standing authorization as he considers appropriate for protecting the revenue (including conditions enabling the Collector to identify and trace the goods after their importation and to establish that they have been re-exported).

Time limit for re-exportation

3. Except where otherwise provided in the Table of Temporary Importation Reliefs, the maximum period of time for which temporary importation relief may be granted shall be 6 months or such longer period as the Collector of Customs may in any particular case specify.

Export

4. The importer may discharge his responsibility for the re-exportation of goods for which temporary importation relief has been granted under this Schedule by providing evidence of re-exportation in the form of a customs export declaration.

CUSTOMS TARIFF ACT 1970

Security

5. The Collector of Customs may, as a condition of authorization of temporary importation relief, require such security as he considers necessary for protecting the revenue.

Transfers between authorised holders of goods of same item permitted

- 6
- (1) Notwithstanding section 13, the rate of duty imposed under section 2(2) shall not apply to any transfer of goods between beneficiaries of the same temporary importation relief where such transfer is approved by the Collector of Customs.
 - (2) The holder of an authorisation may apply to the Collector of Customs for the approval of a transfer.
 - (3) The Collector of Customs may require the holder of an authorisation who has applied for the approval of a transfer under subparagraph (2) or the transferee to make a customs declaration.
 - (4) Section 16(2) and (3) of the Revenue Act 1898 shall apply to a customs declaration made under subparagraph (3).
 - (5) The Collector of Customs may approve an application for a transfer made under subparagraph (2), subject to a condition that the transferee shall be bound by all the conditions of the prescribed temporary importation relief specified under paragraph 2 and to such other conditions as he considers appropriate for protecting the revenue or may refuse the application.

Interpretation

- 7 The descriptions of goods in the Table of Temporary Importation Reliefs are included for reference purposes only and do not have the force of law.
