

ECONOMIC RECOVERY PLAN

THEME 5: Labour Market and Social Development Measures

Youth Employment Strategy

Created to meet the needs of unemployed Bermudians between the ages of 18 and 26, train them in jobs currently occupied by guest workers and guide them back to work, the strategy has:

Addressed students at The Berkeley Institute's College & Career Day workshop for the Class of 2023, sharing information on:

Workforce Development and the services offered to High school Graduates

Summer Employment/Internship programmes

Resume development

Scholarship Opportunities

Held three Graduate Trainee Programmes involving 36 recent college/university graduates benefitting from:

Coaching, Employability Skills Training

One-on-one support to develop their personal brand

Three-month work placements

The opportunity to gain experience in their area of study

Help transitioning into their careers

A fourth cohort is scheduled in the fall of 2023

